

Robert J. (“Bob”) Olejar

- Self-employed lawyer and forensic accountant who has appeared in court as attorney of record at both plaintiff's and defense table, and on the witness stand as an expert in forensic accounting, resulting in a unique perspective on all sides of an issue.
- Successful criminal defense in U.S. District Court and Circuit Court of Appeals as member of Federal Criminal Justice Act Panel of Defense Attorneys.
- More than 20 years' service as court-appointed Receiver and Forensic Accountant to the Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, General Equity, in Bergen, Essex, Morris and Passaic Counties.
- Proven managerial skills gained from planning and supervising forensic accounting engagements for “Big Four” accounting firm, managing entities in receivership, including prosecuting and defending legal actions on their behalf.

SIGNIFICANT EMPLOYMENT:

- Assistant Prosecutor: Bergen County
- Deloitte & Touche
 - Senior Manager: Dispute Consulting (Forensic Accounting)
 - Senior Accountant: Audit Practice

LICENCES AND CERTIFICATIONS:

- Attorney and Counsellor at Law (New Jersey and New York)
- Certified Public Accountant (New Jersey)
- Certified Fraud Examiner (International)
- Barrister (England and Wales)

EDUCATION:

- Seton Hall University School of Law
- Montclair State College

PERSONAL:

- Residency:
 - Lifelong resident of New Jersey
 - Randolph Township resident since 1986
(Former Randolph Republican Club Member)
- Family:
 - Wife: Linda, Attorney
 - Daughter: Natasha, Randolph High School Class of 2010, Syracuse University 2014
 - 1st Generation American: Both parents from former Czechoslovakia

MILITARY & OTHER:

- A former U.S. Marine, supports the Marine Corps Law Enforcement Foundation, a charity which provides family aid and a $35K bond to each child of a fallen Marine or Federal law enforcement officer. (Since 1995, MCLEF has raised and distributed more than $78 million to 4177 recipients.)
www.mc-lef.org
- New Jersey Lawyer Magazine, Editorial Board, six years
- Author: Six professional articles, three of which published in New Jersey.